

Massachusetts Hingham Naval Ammunition Depot

Facility and Location

Former Hingham Naval Ammunition Depot is now the property of the cities of Weymouth and Hingham, the Massachusetts Division of Fisheries and Wildlife, Department of Public Works, Hingham Mutual Life Insurance Co., Hingham Property Trust, and several other developers and smaller landholders. A large portion of this site consists of salt marsh, tidal flats, and open water which present environmental concerns in the remediation process. It is used primarily for recreational activities such as fishing, hiking, and boating.

Media Sampled and Findings

Groundwater — In 2007, one of five samples detected perchlorate at 0.11 ppb.

Appropriate Actions

Not Applicable. All samples were below the EPA and DoD Preliminary Remediation Goal of 15 ppb.
